ABOUT ME

With five years of experience in different industries, I feel I´m ready to broaden my career horizon and to experience new cultures and challenges. I´m a self-taught developer, looking for a job worldwide, in order to improve my skills and gain more experience. I have dual citizenship: argentinian-italian.

At the moment, I´m based in Copenhagen, improving my skills with React Js and learning all about new technologies, such as Next.js , while I enjoy creating new projects and brushing up my English.
